

Richard S. Martinko, P.E.
Assistant Director for Highway Management
Ohio Department of Transportation

Education: University of Toledo (1974)
B.S. Civil Engineering, Transportation Major

Professional Registration: Ohio State Board for Professional Engineers

The Ohio Department of Transportation: May 2003 - Present
Assistant Director for Highway Management in ODOT's Central Office in Columbus, responsible for ODOT's Construction, Materials Management, and Maintenance operations statewide. Also leads the management team on the Maumee River Crossing Bridge Project in Toledo, the largest construction project to date for ODOT.

February 1999 to May 2003
District Two Deputy Director
Primary duties and responsibilities are to direct the overall operations for the eight counties of District Two.

1991 - February 1999
Served in the positions of Highway Management Administrator, District Operations Engineer, District Traffic Engineer, and Assistant Testing Engineer.

Rich also worked in the private sector for 12 years. He served in various Management and engineering positions for the DeVilbiss Company, Dan Group, and AVCA.

He is currently a Board Member of the University of Toledo's Intermodal Transportation Institute, and was named a 2002/2003 UT College of Engineering Outstanding Alumnus.

Personal Information: Recently moved to Columbus with his wife Suzanne Martinko. They have two children, Stephen, who recently graduated from Brown University and is working for Congressman Porter in Washington D.C, and Lindsay, who is about to graduate from Bowling Green State University.